Fresh 100.3 & Fox News Anchor, Jay Towers will be Master of Ceremonies at The Information Center Gala in October/Tickets on sale now!

Taylor, MI. (July 22, 2011) -- Fresh 100.3 & Fox 2 News Anchor, Jay Towers will be the Master of Ceremonies for The Information Center's 17th Annual Gala, Thursday, October 13th. Jay anchors Fox 2 News weekend and wakes up Detroit daily on Fresh 100.3. Jay's radio day doesn't end at 10-am though, he also hosts the afternoon show on Mix 106.1 in Philadelphia.

Edward D'Angelo, Executive Director; "We are thrilled to have Jay Towers play this important part of The Information Center's Annual Gala Celebration this October 13th. Jay is an entertaining and talented broadcast personality, and he is a very compassionate individual who cares about our community here in Southeast Michigan. We are looking forward to having a lot of fun at this annual fundraising event while supporting the very important efforts of our staff and volunteers to help people who need our help."

The Information Center will celebrate 36 years of community service that evening with a VIP reception, dinner, photo booth and silent auction. Funds raised from sponsorships, advertisements and the silent auction support The Information Center's program and services. Major sponsors include Meijer Inc., The Heritage Newspaper and Loving Care Home Care, LLC. This year's gala celebration will be held at Crystal Gardens Banquet Center, Southgate.

Tickets are on sale now ($75 each) and may be purchased by phone until October 6, 2011. Sponsorship packages are still available. For ticket or sponsorship information, please contact Lori Stevenson at 734-282-7171.
